

OLmusic PROUDLY PRESENTS:

Jewish World Music

BOAZ DAVIDOFF (ISR)

also available as a Cantor

Davidoff brings from Israel a unique mix of Gipsy, cantorial styles, Jewish soul and a touch of Eastern European and oriental music. His breathtaking voice that fits to operas as well as to Israeli rock music doesn't leave any questions unanswered. He performs as soloist with guitar and Darbouka as well as with his own band (Davidoff&friends).

Boaz is a Cantor, recording artist and concert performer, as well as a musician, composer and choir director. He can be booked also for Jewish congregation events, Synagogue performances and summer camps for children.

Feel free to contact us for any special wishes connected to community work. He sings in Hebrew as well as English.

In 2012 he was chosen by the Zentralrat der Juden in Deutschland to be one of the Jewish musicians in their own artistic booklet and traveled to different communities in Germany.
